This is one of those places that has been there a hundred years, run by the same people who seem genuinely friendly and appear to know most of their customers well. My year old hates the garnish that comes with sandwiches and they were...lovely about it, bought him his special Just Plain Sandwich and made sure he was happy. Even though it was busy they didn't rush us to get the table free for other people. read more. What User

doesn't like about Bev's Cafe:

Can not say what the food is like because the simple meal ordered took so long to arrive we left before it came.

Any clients in the cafe had received their meals when we arrived. Subsequent arrivals did not eat in. When I approached the counter I was ignored even though the attendant walked straight past me. Then we were lied to.

No apology offered. No refund offered. The hot chocolate did arrive in reasonable time a... read more.
