I had 30 minutes up my sleeve waiting for the State Library to open, so decided to get a coffee. I had passed Livingstone's on my walk from the train station, so headed back there. So glad I did. Service was impeccable - smile and happy greeting, efficient and friendly. Coffee was awesome - exactly as I like it. The quirky seating area was surprisingly comfortable and relaxing. I took my colleague back there for coffee... read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about Livingstone's Urban Jungle:

The written descriptions of the staff, food and coffee are witty and in the case of the coffee probably better than the product. This is not a winter venue but on a mild to warm day its a pleasant location to have a coffee and a bite to eat. The friendly, dare I say, slightly alternative staff, are efficient and helpful. Located adjacent to the Art Gallery its a good alternative to the coffee shop within the galler... read more.
