I visited this place a few days ago because of the good reviews. It no longer had the name of the business mentioned here so I asked if this was still the same place. She said they had a change of ownership recently but they still made them kiwi style. We gave this place a chance but was disappointed because the fish was drenched in oil and the batter was soggy. They also charged $2.50 for a side of ketchup. Will not... read more.
