As a Hogs Breath regular for nearly 20 years, we went back to the Newcastle restaurant after a break for a few years. Service has always been a problem in the past, which encouraged us to frequent other stores. We went back for a Mother's Day lunch and service was greatly improved. I'm not sure if this is a permanent change, or if more staff were rostered on for this peak day, but it felt more like the "Hogspitality"... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about Hog's Breath Cafe:
Used to be one of our family favourites. Its been a long time since Hogs' Breath has impressed our family in the slightest. It's nearly so deja vu to the point of being similar to visiting a Macca's or KFC...except the cost being at least 2 x times. Guys, your restaurants really need a breath freshener...BIG revamp...ask yourselves, what will attract your faithfuls back? read more. Hog's Breath Cafe from Newcastle is the perfect place if you want to sample delicious American dishes like burgers or barbecue, Additionally, they offer you authentic Australian dishes with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
