This is a wonderful spot, with friendly staff that deliver food on time, always with a smile, always great food. It is one of those really traditional takeaways in the heart of the city. Great food, great service, which seems to have been there forever - well at least the last 20 years. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about The Daily Grind:

This may only be a place that provides sustenance to Brisbane's public servants but it should lift its game. Some of the food is so bad its almost inedible, especially the pre-prepared burger things. As far as coffee goes, do yourself a favour and go across the road. read more.
