What User likes about Yes Thai Restaurant: With just about every suburb in Australia now having at least one Thai restaurant it is a crowded market place. A lot of them are very ordinary producing western taste food that has lost authenticity. Yes Thai is a very small restaurant in Oatley that has recently changed hands. The menu is pretty much what we have come to expect of Thai places in Australia, but this one produced authentic Thai tasting food one would e... read more. When the weather is good you can also eat outside. What User doesn't like about Yes Thai Restaurant: The menu looked quite promising when I found it on the Menulog website. I went for the Prik Khing Moo Grob (crispy pork with ginger), the salt & pepper squid, pad kee mao (flat noodles) with seafood, and an entree of money bags. The money bags were okay but not memorable, the pad kee mao was alright even though the seafood was chewy and pre-frozen, but the squid was quite chewy and lacking flavour. One of the chef's sp... read more.
