The best breakfast in Liverpool, but waiting times can get ridiculous and that's why it's only 4 stars. Staff is friendly, atmosphere and interior are great, portions are really big for the price and we will definitely be going back there many more times. Although, be prepared to wait. There's often a queue by the front door, and then waiting times for a breakfast can reach quite a long time (I'd say 40 minutes? Last... read more.
