I eat here atleast twice a week and i go with the family on a weekly basis for coffee and desserts and everytime its better than the time before. I highly recommend you come here and see for your self. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in nice weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about D'Roost:

I have eaten here three times. The first time the food was ok. Beautiful potato coriander dish. Kids nuggets meals huge. Chicken was nice. Second time a little less ok and the third time total rubbish. Chicken was dry and salty.

But what is totally consistent with this place is the terrible terrible service. The staff at the front are dismissive and just plain arrogant. The wait staff are not much better. What is goi... read more. D'Roost from Liverpool is a comfortable café, where you can have a small snack or cake with a warm coffee or a hot chocolate, The visitors of the establishment are also thrilled with the comprehensive selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment offers. Additionally, there are also light Mediterranean meals available, Customers often choose the fine, fluffy flatbread, which is perfect for dunking into the homemade hummus or a creamy yogurt dip; the captivating connection of figs and goat cheese undeniably also belongs to the delicious bits of the multifaceted Middle Eastern cuisine.
