A low key cafe with a great vibe, headed by the very experienced Claire who has run some great places around town. The coffee is very, very good, service is pleasant, and the decor is simple but relaxing. Situated in the Mt Hawthorn end of Oxford St, opposite Yelo and Budburst, with inside tables for 2 or more, a few high tables, an open kitchen, and seating on Oxford St, which is sunny in the morning and shaded late... We've been twice before today but will not be back. Owner very rude, I have never felt so uncomfortable out before. When I told the owner her attitude to us spilt our morning she suggested we come again without our kids!

She's trying to create an adult space. She would state kids not welcome but isn't allowed to. This is fine but maybe have that clearly obvious rather than being rude after we've paid for breakfast. W... read more. The fresh and succulent juices on the drinks menu perfectly complement the meals of the restaurant, Furthermore, you can get sweet treats, cake, small snacks and chilled refreshments and hot drinks here.
