Came here for a coffee and dessert after dinner. This place was just bustling and buzzing with people and families due to season of Ramadan. Had a nice atmosphere and the place is well lit. There is a full menu to select from as well. Desserts and sweets look delectable and you will be spoilt for choice. Good coffee too. It gets a 5 star rating from me a second time around reviewing this place because of the atmosphe... read more.

What User doesn't like about El Sweetie: We had to ask two waiters for a menu and constantly asking to order. Very frustrating, the place was very busy therefore they should improve customer service. We wanted advice with the sweets and the waiter was of Arabic background and still wouldn't assist or recommend. We had another waiter roll eyes, body language is everything. Would not return sorry there is good shisha and better vibe environments in the area.
