Felt like a really good meal of fish and chips as we were in town on holidays, and found them at Isley's. Size of the serve was excellent, crumbed flathead was fantastic as was what appeared to be homemade chips. Also ordered potato cakes and these were arguably the best we have ever had, no grease at all. Would certainly recommend to anyone in Bairnsdale, Victoria. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather. What User doesn't like about Isley's Fish & Chips:

Flake was small and tough. Measly amount of chips that were not crispy, despite asking for them to be so. Long waiting time for food that was not worth it. We ordered 3 serves of fish and chips - they were ALL disappointing. read more.
