The restaurant from Brisbane offers 118 different meals and drinks on the menu at an average A$17. What User likes about Spin the Spoon:

First time there on Friday night, loved it, friendly service, excellent food and only $60 for two people. Prawn skewers were amazing, so were the lamb cutlets. Totally recommend. The owners told us about their catering, we are now planning a Melbourne Cup function for work at the office. This place is a lucky find. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What Alana Huel doesn't like about Spin the Spoon:

We used a coupon to eat at spin the spoon and there were only 2 options for the main meal. We started with the entree of Turkish bread with dips which was good however the meal was too much. The meal was just meat on...more bread which was drenched in sauce. This wasn't the most appetising meal and we could barely eat any as there was no palette cleanser like vegetables. It wasn't a bad meal but it wasn't great. read more.

Whether you opt for a tasty flatbread which is refined with a rich garlic infusion, or crispy falafel, the meals from the Middle East transport you for a moment to a distant land - as dessert a honey-like, crispy baklava, you can return strengthened to your daily life, here they serve a comprehensive brunch for breakfast. In addition, you can indulge your palate with various excellent meals from the Turkish cuisine, such as chicken kebab or a spicy lentil or bulgur salad, Easily digestible Mediterranean dishes are also available.
