The restaurant from Fremantle offers 109 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average A$12. What User likes about The Ajrak Restaurant:
Excellent flavoursome curries that are hard to find on anyone's else's menu. Great buffet too! If I want well-made, unique tasting curries, this is the place I visit. Best in town read more. When the weather conditions is pleasant you can also eat and drink outside. What Camryn Terry doesn't like about The Ajrak Restaurant:
we thought we would try another Indian tonight than change of maya or haandi if we had not disturbed ourselves, eating is terrible, there was a very sad and sad looking buffet, the personal spoke very little English and the decor was terrible, looked like something...tiling had been done and not completed. give it read more. If you want to have a drink after work and hang out with friends, The Ajrak Restaurant from Fremantle is a good bar, With traditional Indian spices, dishes are tasty and freshly prepared. In this restaurant there is also an extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties not to forget, guests often choose the delicious, fluffy flatbread, which is perfect for dipping into the homemade hummus or a creamy yogurt dip; the captivating connection of figs and goat cheese undeniably also belongs to the best dishes of the multifaceted Middle Eastern cuisine.
