Good, chilled byo spot in Northbridge. The staff is relaxed and casual and you can entertain a large crowd.

Would highly recommend. The main meals are very good value. Don't expect fine dining but come for the atmosphere read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also eat and drink outside. What Philip B doesn't like about Tasik Indonesian:

Pleasant setup in converted Victorian house Friendly but amateurish service. The food was slow to arrive. The real Indonesian food was wonderfully flavoursome. Do try the Rendang and the Satay. If you like pungent food ask for some Sambal Chili on the side. There is talent in the kitchen here and the food is cheap and really worth waiting for. Water and corkage appear to be free. Worth a visit read more. The comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Tasik Indonesian even more worthwhile, You can take a break at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Tasik Indonesian. Anyone who finds the usual and generally known dishes too ordinary should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients enjoy, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian menus.
