Its a basic looking place to eat, don't let that put you off. I came here with a colleague, we asked for some recommendations, had some really great, tasty dishes, decent selection of beer, and all at sensible prices. I will look this place up again next time around, read more. The restaurant offers free WLAN for its guests, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. If the weather are right, you can also be served outside. What Celestino Hodkiewicz doesn't like about Adelaide Asian Street Food: poor service. overpriced. poor food quality. in the night before the return flight to melbourne, ordered hotpot that turned out to be spicy for even children. lady manager and waiter very arrogant say hotpot means spicy hot not because it is cooked on edible. it's my fault I don't look at the picture. paid total for chicken pot for two head fried rice dosen koks lychee. manager wanted to calculate hotpot on children, al...
