We went for a games afternoon and even on a dreadfully windy day we enjoyed it. We had lunch and afternoon tea while we were there. The food was tasty and the service friendly. I'd be happy to go back. Be warned, though, parking can be an issue. Try the side streets. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in pleasant weather. What Nicole Huet doesn't like about Kookaburra Cafe:

We were looking for a late breakfast and my wife thought it looked cute!!!! I was hesitant given the cheap plastic tables and chairs outside. Upon entering you are immediately faced with some massive pizza ovens then walk past the kitchen before you are able to see any seating. Upon having been shown to our seats we looked around and realised a) we were the only people there and b) it was filthy with crumbs and old foo... read more.
