Went there for dinner. Casual place, doesn't look appealing from the outside but food is authentic Malaysian food. Has Asians and Caucasians customers - still spicy and full of flavour. Ordered sambal three kings (eggplant, okra, beans) and curry fish head. Generous serving size. $40 for the 2 dishes with rice. Maybe a little on the salty side for both dishes but otherwise, will come again. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about Meals at Jackson's:

We ordered the salt and pepper squid which the batter was too thick and oily, not what I expected and a bit over priced for a local Malaysian. The chicken curry with roti was nice but have had better. I would like to go there one more time to experience other dishes on the menu before I can ride it off to be fair. read more.
