This is a bread shop. They make typically available Bread and loaves. They do cakes as well. There is nothing special about these. However, their Vietnamese rolls are excellent. The crispy pork roll is only available on weekends, but it is superb - and cheap. The coffee is good too. read more. What User doesn't like about South Maroubra Hot Bread:

It's probably unfair to benchmark them against Hong Ha at Mascot but they are the best as evidenced by their queues. The rolls weren't bad, it just they had excess mayo, lacked a little flavour and as a result they were a little soggy - they started less as a crisp Vietnamese roll so that didn't help things. And at $6 compared to Hong Ha's $5 they aren't close. Good size though, and not bad. read more.
