I have been here before, however for this experience I didn't have a booking, it was a Wednesday night and we were having an early dinner. The place was empty but staff was super friendly. The food here is amazing, cooked fresh with plenty of great sashimi/sushi options to choose from. Also loads of main menu items to choose from.

Cute atmosphere and great price range for high quality food, the dumplings are especial... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather. What User doesn't like about

Roppongi Japanese Restaurant:

Chicken skewers were raw and on telling them all they said was "we will put them on for another few minutes for you". Food quantity was very less. Gave us the bill for a different table. The place stinks. The place downgraded, no more table mats, less spread of menu. read more.
