This shop is located inside the shopping centre and has seating for customers. They supply hot meals and their well known pies and pastries. They also have Family Dinners to take home. There are several of these

Franchises along the Mid-North coast, they originally started baking in Timbertown located in Wauchope and baked in wood fired ovens but had to move out when the park was shut down. They have 30 varieties of... read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What

User doesn't like about Ridgey Didge Pies:

The one thing that you notice when you turn up at the counter is a very ordinary presentation. They do have a large variety of pies including a gluten free option. The pies are of the soft pastry style that tend to drip and fall apart when eating. I find that they are overpriced for what you get. I don't go there any more as there are better pies available in Forster Keys. read more. The comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Ridgey Didge Pies even more worthwhile, Additionally, they offer you authentic Australian menus with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes. Also, you have the option to indulge in oven-warm breads and snacks.
