So, I went to Mavericks after seeing jalepeno poppers on the menu. I have been in Australia for almost 8 years and have been searching for good jalepeno poppers since I got here!!! AT LAST, I FOUND THEM :)!!! They were different than I'm used to, i.e. the jalepino was not blanched beforehand, but they were FABULOUS. The crunch of the fresh jalepeno under the batter was delicious! Unfortunately it took ages, about 30m... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Mavericks on Darby:

This was our first visit to Maverick's so did not know what to expect. The space is huge and open to the street. It is fresh and new and has some great local photos as part of the decor. If you are looking for a small bar oozing with atmosphere this is not for you but if you want a generous space, big screen tvs and good food then this will fit your bill. We ordered the lamb and linguini with crab and prawns and both... read more.
