Been here for lunch as the restaurant next door was closed and was the only place opened on the day by the water. Location: It is right on the lake so it has a good view. Food: Had pasta and it was decent. Drinks: Wine by the glass was very good (had the sauvignon blanc). Ambiance: Suitable for a business lunch, dinner. It is not a fine dining place but it is a convenient well located place to have a regular eat out. Value... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Romano's By The Harbour:

Weekday group lunch. Spectacular views although if facing the window you will need your sunglasses. Service was a bit average, long wait for drinks, lack of entree plates, inappropriate cutlery to suit meals. Entrees were a bit samey and many of the steaks served were underdone. Only chips and a small slaw were served with the steak. Desserts however, did look very nice. read more. At Romano's By The Harbour in Frankston East, a diverse brunch is served for breakfast, where you can have your fill enjoy thoroughly, The guests of the restaurant also consider the large selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment offers.
