Only place left in town when we went . Was made to rush to order and rushed to finish and paid a lot for simple starters and a kids meal. Not my first choice but there isn't that many left at night read more. This Bistro stands out for its smallness, but finesse, not only for its ambiance, but also due to its selection of typical, delicious menus at traditionally reasonable prices, there are also fine vegetarian menus on the menu. Also, the menus from Australia of this establishment are notable, and you can look forward to the fine classic seafood cuisine.
