I was happy to support this place because of their participation in the training of disadvantaged youth. the service was mixed but I was very happy with eating. I had a veggie-tofu dish that was so delicious, and then if I thought I would not dessert at all in luang prabang, it turns out that it was a unique and very tasty vegan dessert option that I was so impressed: updated by the previous review on 2020-02-17 read more. In nice weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Khaiphaen:

the workers struggled to take our order or to understand our requirements due to lack of English so that we ended up with a tofu when we had not requested any ice. but they were very apologetic and sweet and eating was delicious. great concept of community, which is itself worth supporting read more.
