Really enjoyed our visit to the Robert Burns. We were given a quick and warm welcome, and received really attentive service all night. Great menu, too (cant go past the rib-eye or barramundi) which was complemented by a very comprehensive wine list featuring some fabulous Spanish wines. read more. When the weather is nice you can also be served outside. What Hollis Berge doesn't like about Robert Burns Hotel:

The Robbie burns used to be the place to go for Spanish in Collingwood no longer. The new owner was overly direct when he was explaining this, and a number of others walked in and walked out when they found out that they were not going to get the Spanish menu that they had come for. Since then, I've noticed an empty restaurant every time I walk past looks like the new formula does not work. Sorry Robbie no Spanish, t... read more. At Robert Burns Hotel in Melbourne, tasty, juicy, delicious meat is freshly roasted on an open flame and served with tasty sides, At the bar, you can relax with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Also try the savory Spanish meals from the kitchen of the house, they are recommendable, and you can look forward to the tasty typical seafood cuisine.
