Though this restaurant appears a little run down and lacking dine in customers the curry was quite tasty and aromatic. There is a choice of the level of chilli spice Mild, Medium and Hot. We had the chicken korma, biryani with chicken both Medium however being quite tolerant to chilli heat we didn't find this spicy at all. We also ordered Tandoori chicken which came out on a cast iron hot plate which was unusual and... read more. What

Rickey Russel doesn't like about Miami's Indian Kitchen:

Birthday dinner for my 9 year old who loves Indian. We were first seated in restaurant and ordered straight away. Drinks order - 2 lemonades for the girls took 5 minutes - there was no one else there! and came in 4 different types and shaped glasses. Drinks are $4 a can and were not that cold. Another group of diners were served their meal before we received our entree of Samosa and Naans. Curries arrived at table with 1... read more.
