The restaurant from Melbourne offers 53 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average A$15. What User likes about Sugar Prawn:

The char kway teow tastes very close to the singapore taste, thumbs up. The wok taste and the right sweetness and saltiness to the dish was a delightful find. The bbq sting ray would have been better if there was more sauce, it was a little dry and slightly overcooked. It's a pity they don't have chincalok which normally goes with the malaysian bbq food.
