World Square is beautifully located in CBD. Right next to the light rail line with easy access. The mall awesomely decorated with giant sculpture design or feature design. Must say my favourite thing is that it has tons of coffee shops there, super busy and they do good cuppa too. Parking could be a problem as not much off street parking around, mostly loading zone. We went to Fuku since it was a quite well ranked Japanese restaurant in the proximity of our hotel. We booked a sit through Tripadvisor booking service (Dimmi) but, actually, the place was not crowded, though not even empty.

The environment is quite informal, with black wooden tables not much separated one to the other, chairs and benches. We got a mixed sushi and sashimi plate for two persons, which was good, though... Fuku from Sydney creates for you scrumptious sushi (e.g., Maki and Te-Maki), in addition to many additional variations, always fresh with ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat, The visitors of the establishment also consider the large selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment offers. The burgers of this place are among the highlights and are usually served with filling sides such as chips, salads or wedges, In addition, the current games or races can be watched on the big TV in this sports bar, which the visitors also love.
