I have been to La Cacciatora four times and really enjoy the Italian country cooking. Their pizza by the metre is excellent and slightly different to your run of the mill. Their mains especially the game are all excellent. read more. When the weather is good you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about La Cacciatora:

Our party of eight all enjoyed the pizza served here. The restaurant is a little dated and doesn't have the same vibe of long ago. If you are not fussed by this and just want a no fuss, reasonably good pizza at a fair price then go for it. The crab linguine was very nice on the day including the crab legs it was served with. read more. In La Cacciatora, a place with Italian menus from Melbourne, typical Italian cuisine, with main courses such as pizza and pasta, is available to you, Also, the customers of the establishment love the large variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer. If you decide to come for breakfast, a hearty brunch is ready for you, Don't miss the chance to eat the tasty pizza, prepared straight out from the oven in an traditional way.
