Excellent dishes and I probably shouldn't complain about the price, but I was a bit surprised. We had dinner at the Woolwich restaurant (again, what should I have expected). read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Eatdustry Thai: Not being one to complain, let alone write a review, this place really was exceptionally bad. We ordered the crispy pork belly and received six tiny slivers so small, our one year old would have still been hungry. The chef was rude and arrogant when we complained, telling us that some people just aren't happy and he had other things to focus on (mind you, the restaurant was almost empty - a bad sign in itself). We were... read more. For those who want to a cocktail after work and hang out with friends, Eatdustry Thai from WOOLWICH is a good bar, With the popular spices and fish sauces, Thai menus are prepared here. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Eatdustry Thai. Anyone who finds the usual and generally known menus too ordinary should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients consume, On the daily specials there are also several Asian meals.
