What User likes about Rotikon: I discovered this little cafe on the 1st floor of Market City just next to ThaiKee supermarket. While waiting for my wife shopping in ThaiKee, I ordered a cup of Teh Tarek. It served fast food type of dishes with rice such as chicken satay, potato curry, beef rendang, curry chicken and Terriyaki chicken; eat in and as take aways in Ricebox. Rotikon is roti canai shaped into a cone and filled with fillings such as tho... read more. What User doesn't like about Rotikon: Just roti in a conical shape, really. The cone holds rendang, or satay chicken, or lamb curry, or even something called "roti dog". The roti itself is baked - more like a puff pastry than roti - rather than fried. This makes for crumbs. You could go eat outside and be swarmed by seagulls (which is good for pics) or just crumb it up in Haymarket. $6 for a snack is, I don't know anymore. Is that good value? For me it wi...
