we tried all empanadas, the packaging, the arepa rellena, nuggets and vegan tres leches. all tasted great, but it was very expensive (spent $75 including 2 juices) and we waited approx. 35 minutes. read more. What User doesn't like about Myroots:

Ordered the zucchini noodle bowl, two empanadas, and the nuggets. The nuggets were the best, followed by the zuke and the empanadas. The spinach one barely had any filling in it. I felt a bit shortchanged. Overall, food wasn't too shabby but pricey at $31 total. I also picked up the coconut tres leches and the chocolate hazelnut marquesa for dessert. Now these were delicious! I'd come back just for them. The one main... read more. The visitors love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Myroots from Miami, with its successful Asian fusion cuisine - the perfect blend of familiar meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, The customers of the restaurant also appreciate the comprehensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer. It goes without saying that a suitable drink completes a meal; therefore this gastropub provides a sophisticated diversity of fine and local alcoholic options, be it beer or wine, Naturally, you should also taste the tasty burgers, accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges served.
