The falafel pitta and the aubergine pitta were very good, the size was good and the price was good. The humus and tahini sauce inside the pitta was also very good. There were a lot of enticing vegan things on the menu, but we decided that we felt as if they were quite expensive and so we didn't try anything else. I know without trying it and seeing portion size and tasting quality it's a harsh judgment, but looking a... read more. What User doesn't like about Hummus:

The positives: the whole roasted cauliflower was delicious. You get free drinks at the beginning (such as samples and baklava, which is a nice touch. Negative: It's expensive for what you get. We have a plate that came with the smallest amount baba ganoush and some other dips and bits. I didn't like the chickpeas on the hummus because they tasted the texture of the eijoch. would have preferred the roasted Pittabrot.... read more.
