We wanted something casual which was difficult to find in this touristy section of Sydney for dinner. There is a food court down the street, but most of the places close early for dinner. You go up to counter to order and pay.

Dumplings were good, I would stick to them. We ordered a stir fry dish which was mediocre due to the sweet hoisin based sauce, not a fan. Prices were definitely not in the cheap eats range, but... read more. What User doesn't like about Dumpling Bar @ Loftus:

Pros: near tourist area, plenty of seating, small bar available Cons: not the friendliest service (starting to be a common occurrence here), a bit pricy (understandable), food was just okay read more. Traditional menus are prepared in the kitchen of Dumpling Bar @ Loftus in Sydney with typical Asian spices delicious, In addition, the drinks menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive. It offers a wide selection of beers from the region and the whole world. Watching various sports games and matches is equally one of the best parts when visiting this sports bar, The barbecue is freshly prepared here on an open flame.
