We found this place advertising diy food. We paid our 36 dollars and we were led to our table. It then was added with hot burning charcoal bars which resemble a hot furnace. The the guy switched on this rotation machine. I was a bit miffed as to what is was for them I noticed some grid holes either side being moved from left to right as the charcoal was burning. I went to get my meat on a skewers and aha the idea is... read more. In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Yummy Chinese BBQ:
A few friends and I ate here for dinner on a weekend. The place was very busy, but we had reservations and had a table booked. We had the eat all you can buffet, which was quite nice. There was quite a choice in the...More read more.
