I visited the Mitchell hotel a couple of times. Bar staff are overseas backpackers who are helpful and up for a chat. I also struck up a conversation with a couple of the locals, well they were within a couple of hundred kilometers which makes them a local in a big country. Meals a average pub grub, but always more enjoyable in an Outback Pub venue. Bottle shop pool table and all the usuals read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather, and there is free WLAN. What User doesn't like about Hotel Mitchell:

Terrible.....really awful food. Ordered steak and whilst it was a large serve it was almost inedible. The salad and obligatory chips were not much better. Suggest you have a beer here and move on..... read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious dishes from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good variety of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food, The barbecue is freshly grilled here on an open flame. One should particularly acknowledge the meals from the Australian continent of this establishment, Thai dishes are prepared here with the famous spices and fish sauces.
