This is a place where the food exceeds the look. Took a gamble as our little one wanted pizza. Very good salad, pizzas above what we expected and they are licensed so no need to bring drinks. They do need to give it a lick...More read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Sorella Pizza Kitchen:

I dined here recently with my family. We were seated and then left alone. No menu, no drink orders taken. After about 5 minutes a waitress approached us and asked if we would like some garlic bread. I said that we would like to at least see a menu so we could decide if we wanted some garlic bread and that we would like some drinks. The wait for our meals was quite lengthy. I had the garlic prawns and the arancini ball... read more.
