What User likes about Cornerhouse Cafe: Absolutely love Morris! A hidden gem tucked behind the bustle of Oxford St and COFA/UNSW art and design. Staff are lovely and the food is always fresh and vibrant. Despite living in the inner west, I always make the effort to make it in for breakfast when I get the chance. Gorgeous vibe, great cookies, exceptional muffins, hearty sandwiches, no boring salads... the list goes on! read more. What User doesn't like about Cornerhouse Cafe: Location, location. Went early before symphony in the opera house, group of 4 people. Nice selection of small serving meals, tasty and well presented but we asked for dip plate to share first then oysters then other individual dishes. It all came at once! We didn't really have enough room on our table so had to juggle dishes. We said we wanted the dip plate first and waiter replied oh can you manage.... We did manage... read more. Cornerhouse Cafe from Sydney is a good place for a bar to have a beer after work and be able to hang out with friends, You shouldn't miss the opportunity to try the crispy and crunchy pizza, baked straight out of the oven in an traditional manner. Furthermore, you will find typical Italian dishes with delicious classics like pizza and pasta, this sports bar is a favourite among the guests, who enjoy not only the fantastic food and drinks, but also the opportunity to watch the latest games or races on the big TV.
