We have been in Australia for just over four years and this has been the best Oriental food we have had. A must is their Chilli chicken wings. The building is some what shabby but it's a case of "don't judge a book by it's cover".

Best to get a takeaway as the restaurant is very basic. read more. What User doesn't like about Oriental Inn Restaurant:

Maybe it's only the takeaway, but the food was underwhelming at best. Hot & sour soup broth was ok, but there were only a few slices of over cooked beef in the soup - not sure what that was supposed to be. If you like lots and lots of cabbage and onion with your meal, you might find this appealing. I didn't expect the Flower Drum, but I did expect something better than what we got. read more. Thanks to its offerings of typical, delicate dishes at typically affordable prices, this small yet fine Bistro not only excites with its ambiance, Many guests find it especially great that they can try the versatile, flavorful Chinese cuisine. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Oriental Inn Restaurant. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known menus too boring can here approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients eat, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
