We had read about this cafe before going to Murray Bridge for the weekend so drove over to MANNUM to have lunch there. The Kentia Palm room was a lovely quiet and peaceful place to enjoy the homemade soup and foccacia. The range of teas and coffee is extensive so even a morning or afternoon tea would be a delightful experience. (Do query the ceramic duck as its story is quite a tale!) read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Palm Court Cafe Mannum SA:

The food was average, and the serving sizes not good value for money. Seemed stingy. Meals were just hot on arrival at the table. Drinks over priced, and not all varieties available. Plus the service was slow. read more. With the large variety of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Palm Court Cafe Mannum SA becomes even more attractive, this sports bar is a favourite among the customers, who enjoy not only the fantastic food and drinks, but also the opportunity to watch the latest games or races on the big screen. We offer not only sweet pieces, cakes and simple snacks, but also cold and hot drinks, Forbreakfast a hearty brunch is offered here.
