What User likes about The Farmers Arms: visited here with a few non-Veggies as we all wanted to try somewhere new. so happy with a separate vegan menu. I had flower wings, humm and an salate, was good, and the portions were so big that it was for three enough! I die to go back and try the rest of the menu. great service and beautiful atmosphere also. read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about The Farmers Arms: quite poor overall really, food lacked good taste and flavor and the non vegans said the same about their food. hummus had almost zero taste, lacked seasoning and possibly even tahini, as never hummus had so little taste. the main course was ok, which was sweet potato and auvergne bake, but again the veg was simple and totally unseasonal. had no dessert, but there was a vegan option with vegan ice also read more.
