The best vegan burger I have ever eaten in Korea! The patty was so good, vegetables were fresh and surprisingly nothing was sweet! So good! The Perilla oil pasta was also good. I personally don't like seaweeds, so I tried to separate them from the rest of the ingredients! The price is a bit high, but considering the quality, it really worth a try. I actually found this specific patty they are using for Loving Hut Veg... read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about Loving Hut Yeoksam Branch:

I visited there in January. I ordered Pomodoro still the vegan cheese and oil in the plate were strongly placed. It was a cold day that still tasted too fat for a meal. There was a religious advertising video on TV. Since Estrich was tall and the restaurant was quiet and small, the appetizer experience was also somewhat out of force. Maybe if you want to eat or cheat quickly. This restaurant would do it. read more.
