The fried chicken, pancake, chilli combo was amazing and the staff were great. The tables are a bit too close together for my liking and having to go through the bakery to use the bathrooms was interesting. These minor points do not take away from the fantastic food. Will be bringing the rest of the family here soon, but I have noted the lack of highchairs... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in beautiful weather. What Shaylee Daniel doesn't like about Mary Street Bakery:

Every time I stop by this Mary St the staff are so warm and friendly, especially this one girl who's next level, think her name's Heather or something...anyhoo, I would consider myself a bit of an iced chocolate connoisseur, name any café, I've tested out their iced choccies...but this Mary St have somehow managed to create the perfect ratio of milk, chocolate sauce and icecream...a balance of beautiful sweet tones...
