Beyond the namesake steak a handful of daily specials are explained by the eager-to-please staff. On our visit, the wagyu chuck steak (£15) was disappointingly chewy, and the burger (£15) – also made with pricey wagyu beef – scored high on flavour but low on engineering, with meaty crumbs of the patty falling apart after just a few bites. The stripped-back look, with bare brick, antique-styled panelling and age-of-st... read more. What User doesn't like about Hungry Jack's:

these are the worst hungry ones I've ever had. there is this one girl who works there that is always negativ. I think she should just stop. they have never got Belgian lava cakes, which I think is a lie. Maybe they want to bring them home at the end of their shift. eating is also badly done. try them uncooked and simply not on standard. step your game up or I will not come back read more. With the large range of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Hungry Jack's becomes even more attractive, And of course, you should also try the scrumptious burgers, with sides such as fries, salads, or wedges offered. There are also scrumptious American dishes, for example, burgers and grilled meat, You can also discover tasty South American cuisine in the menu.
