We were looking for somewhere to stop for breakfast on a Sunday morning and stumbled across Miss Morning Cafe. After extensive travelling over the xmas period with many associated stops, this would easily be the best little cafe we have found in a long time. The food was delicious - be sure to try their fruit juice blends - and the service was great. The coffee was perfect and although we didn't try them, the cakes I... read more. What User

doesn't like about Miss Morning Cafe:

The coffee machine, kitchen, and staff conversations fill the room with noise. We were there on a busy day, as most other cafes nearby close on Sundays. So many flies on the day we went. Decor thrown together. Floor dirty. Coffee reasonable. Food simple. Would go back for the coffee. Hope the owners can work on solving the noise, cleanliness, and fly problems. read more.
