We shared a meal with friends and found this restaurant to be a great place to enjoy good company in a pleasant venue. The restaurant was not too quiet as to be imposing but not too noisy either - just comfortable for people chatting. The barbecue was cooked on the table, and with appropriate assistance from staff, we were able to enjoy the experience. Food was both ample and of good quality. read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Hancock Korean Restaurant:

We were a group of four on a Groupon 7 course deal. Our experience was very similar to others. We first noticed the tiniest serve of rice I have seen - surprising for a rice based culture. It was hard to find any Korean people eating in this venue. Saw one couple, and what they were eating looking quite delicious. We all love Korean food eaten many times, but this set menu seemed westernised. Enjoyable but we left wit... read more.
