What Kate likes about Hiakai: Simply the best restaurant I have been to, food was beautiful both in taste and visually. The story made it a much fuller experience, with even the music chosen to supplement this. Waiters were also fabulous. Booked to return the same evening, just a shame we have to wait until April, can't wait for the next tale and food journey! read more. What Nick doesn't like about Hiakai:

Unfortunately I was disappointed by my experience at Hiakai. We had a perfectly good meal, but it really didn't rise to the level that I would expect out of the "best" restaurant in Wellington. The flavours were good but nothing special. I've had better meals at other restaurants in town, for a far more affordable price. The mandatory drinks pairing was not something I would have ordered if given the choice, and wa... read more. With the extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Hiakai becomes even more attractive, the menu also includes tasty vegetarian menus. After the meal (or during it), you have the opportunity to still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
