What User likes about Tokyo Street: the place is located in a market hall where there are many small restaurants coffee. I have a miso suppe and a vegan option of a shirataki nudelsalats that was amazing, a house made chillin sauce was offered to me additionally and was really delicious. a small menu with freshly prepared food. the personal is super nice. I can recommend the place. read more. What User doesn't like about Tokyo Street:

Unfortunately, it is now a "no" from me. I've been trying toofu so I can't say about the other dishes. the portion size was good, but there were only noodles on the plate with small pieces of smoked tofu. the tofu was not even cooked. only 50 grams or so of cut tofu from super market. the nuds themselves look good. but the dish was also supersalted. that reduces its attractiveness even more.
