A little piece of home in the middle of Canberra. My go to spot when I'm a bit homesick. The beer selection is always great and the food is consistent. Their Caesar selection is extensive and if you haven't tried Sortilège yet (what are you waiting for?!? they're the only place in Canberra that has it. The staff are all really friendly and the owners are absolute legends! read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Caribou Kingston:

Apart from the atmosphere, I cannot say it was a nice experience. First the bartender doesn't really know what gluten free is. He thinks potatoes contain gluten. Second the burgers we received, even though we requested Gluten Free Option without fries (potatoes are gf but not the fries, because they are cooked in the same oil with other crumbs), one of them came with a bun and both of the portions came with fries. Third... read more. In Caribou Kingston in Campbell, they prepare tasty pizza using a traditional method, served fresh, Of course, you also have to try the fine burgers, that come with sides like fries, salads, or wedges served. guests of the Caribou Kingston appreciate the traditional Canadian meals as well, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
