nothing suggests a good and comforting dish of quality that warms her sweet — especially if they are in the very cold weather of tassie. this restaurant has a wide range of authentic Japanese rams. read more. What User doesn't like about Ajikoma:

Decided to try out this place when coming to Hobart. Staff is ok, the place is warm, nicely designed and decorated. However, the ramen is really lack of flavour and wow factor which I couldn't find any good ramen place since my last trip from Japan. It got the creamy taste but not the depth of flavour in terms of pork broth (tonkotsu). The noodle texture was also not what I expect from ramen. Don't think it's freshly... read more. If you want to spoil your palate with a bit of culinary flair, this is the place to be: The original Asian fusion cuisine of the Ajikoma from Hobart - a delicious mix of traditional and the unexpected, and a lot of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat are used to prepare healthy Japanese menus. The dishes are prepared authentically Asian, among the specialties of this restaurant are particularly the Sushi and Te-Maki.
